To Whom It May Concern:

Twice I've had the pleasure of hearing Marcia Fine present her work. She is as engaging a speaker as she is a writer. Her books are dramatic and thought-provoking as evidenced by the many questions and positive comments of her readers. Marcia is clearly diligent about the research that supports her stories. Then she weaves those facts into exciting and clever narratives. At one presentation, it became clear that Marcia's characters and their adventures rang so true that her readers were convinced some tragic events were autobiographical. Marcia assured them that wasn't the case much to their relief.

If you or your book club are looking for good reads and excellent presentations about those books, I highly recommend Marcia Fine. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Miki Safadi
